PATTERSON (HISTORICAL OFFICE)
BALL

1245 April 20, 1965

GWB called the Historian's Office to see if somebody could go back through the files of the 1950 Post and Tribune articles by Walter Lippman and see if he wrote anything about the legal situation of a divided Korea; whether the invasion from the north constituted aggression because of the demarcation line. GWB is interested in his consistency toward the Korean situation and South Viet-Nam in view of his article of today. HO promised to have a paper up within a day or two.
